

Item 2 - Blue nightgown: Examination revealed the presence of human blood. Attempts to determine the blood group were unsuccessful. Examination also revealed the shoulder straps to be torn.

Item 3 - Flowered print sheet: Examination revealed the presence of human blood. Attempts to determine the blood group were unsuccessful. Hairs were removed from this item but none were found to be of foreign origin regarding Item 17. The sheet also had rips and tears present.

Item 4 - Tissue from couch: Examination of this item revealed the presence of blood. Tests indicated the presence of Group "B" human blood.

Item 5 - Pullover: Examination of this item revealed the presence of dried blue flowers adhering to it.

Item 6 - Pillow case: Examination of this item revealed the presence of human blood. Attempts to determine the group were unsuccessful.