

Original

INVESTIGATION REPORT

Ref. 89-5365
Comp. No. _____Date 8-18-83Complainant Connie Ingeri D.O.B. _____Address # 97 Water St. Apt. 106 Waterway Apts. Leom. Time 5:10 AM

August 14, 1983 Officer's Jr. Tata & R. Booth detailed to see Mrs. Ingeri at the above address in regards that she had property that belongs to someone else.

Upon our arrival at the above address we went into the apt. and spoke to the complainant and she said that a couple of boys were ringing door bells at all the apts. she said she opened the door and a young boy told her that he had found a pocket book in the words, and the pocket book belonged to a Lennice Plante of 97 Water Street Leominster, Mass. The complainant said that she knew the woman so she called the police.

Inside the Apt. spoke to the boy who found the pocketbook a Brian B Adams 2-16-71 of # 82 Cottage Street Leominster, Mass. The boy and his two friends took us to the words where the pocket book was found. This object was found across the brook near the bank of the brook in the brush on the parking lot side of the street. Inside the pocket book was a check book, wallet, personal papers. This pocket book was tagged and placed in the Det. Bu.

[Handwritten signature]

Officer Jr Tata & R. Booth
Date 8-18-83